

Note that we have a list of concepts related to this story. Concepts are generalized ideas which can be challenged and stretched. We can do this by questioning the assumptions we make and thinking about alternative perspectives in order to further shape and define our ideas. The sample questions we have listed will encourage dialogue about the story, but you can also explore any of the concepts listed using the following question stems.

While they're all grooming their bottoms, they begin to argue and then fight. Meanwhile, a frog who'd recently hopped into the farmyard and assumed he couldn't enter the competition because he didn't have a tail (and what is a bottom without a tail?), straps a bouquet of flowers to his bottom and takes first prize! <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Is okay to be vain? • Are all competitions good? • How can you decide what is best? • Is it fair to gain an advantage? • Are beauty contests fair?
